SEATING CAPACITY FOR ROUND CONFERENCE TABLES

What size should my table be? The guidelines below are a great start.

ROUND

Users	Size (feet)	Size (inches)	Min. Room Size (feet)
4	4	48	11 x 11
6	6	72	13 x 13
8	8	96	15 x 15
10	10	120	17 x 17
12	12	144	19 x 19
14	14	168	21 x 21
16	16	192	24 x 24
18	18	216	26 x 26
20	20	240	28 x 28
22	22	264	32 x 32
24	24	288	34 x 34
26	26	312	36 x 36
28	28	336	38 x 38
30	30	360	40 x 40

The user capacity is based on a comfortable spacing of 30" per person. For boardroom use, 36" per person is appropriate.

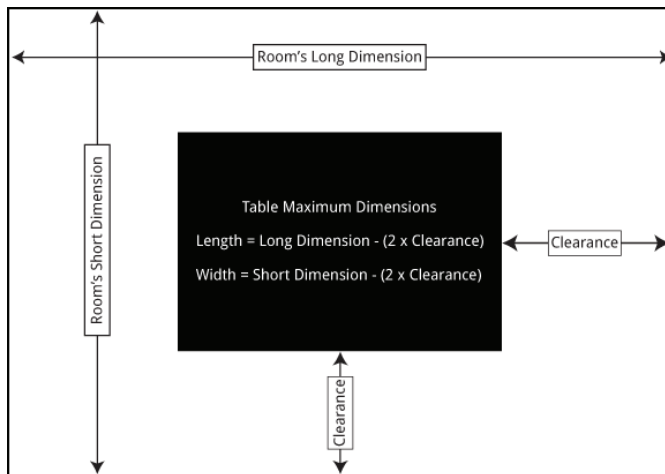

In situations where users need more space (for instance, meetings where everyone has a computer or documents), 42" is appropriate. For luxury situations, 48" is preferred.

Round conference tables are pretty, but inefficient. However, the capacity calculation is very simple: users = diameter in feet.

Large round tables are usually made with an open center. If your space isn't square, we can make an oval table with the same perimeter – these will always have custom dimensions.

SEATING CAPACITY FROM ROOM DIMENSIONS

To determine the dimensions of the free space that can hold the table, so measure the room's length and width and subtract obstructions such as columns and other furniture. The clearance, or space between the table and the closest obstruction, varies with the size of the room.

For spaces up to 16ft long, minimum clearance is 42", while 48" is recommended.

For spaces up to 22ft long, minimum clearance is 48", while 60" is recommended.

For spaces over 22ft long, minimum clearance is 60", while 72" is recommended.

Subtract twice the clearance from the length and width of the room to find the table's maximum dimensions.
